Experience

Leveraging fifteen years of middle-market M&A experience, Lance Bell leads BRG Capital Advisors' efforts in healthcare services. He has completed over $2 billion in transaction value across a broad range of transactions, including sell- and buy-side advisory, as well as capital raising for public and private companies. His healthcare expertise includes physician practices, behavioral healthcare, facilities and alternate sites, and outsourced healthcare services.

Before transitioning to investment banking, Mr. Bell worked as a corporate and securities attorney, counseling senior executives, in-house counsels, and investors regarding legal and regulatory aspects of business strategies, including M&A transactions, initial public offerings, and private placements of debt and equity.

Mr. Bell was previously a senior vice president at an investment bank in Nashville, where he focused on healthcare services. Prior to investment banking, he practiced law at one of the largest law firms in the Midwest US.

Education and Affiliations

He graduated summa cum laude from Transylvania University with a BA in accounting. He earned a JD from Vanderbilt University Law School and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business with concentrations in finance, entrepreneurship, and accounting.
