Jerry Engel discussed community and place in the development of innovation, technology, and breakthrough commercialization. He explored components and behaviors of a cluster of innovation, and how these lessons can be transported to communities such as Kuwait.

Find out more about the Global Center.